Who is eligible? Skaters who have completed several Learn to Skate sessions and have acquired skating badges. Perspective members of the Winterland ISI Club should contact the Skating Director or any Staff Coach for an evaluation and recommendation. Skaters taking private lessons from a Winterland staff coach are automatically eligible to be members.

Membership includes: Exclusive member ice, testing privileges, competition eligibility, synchronized teams, availability of private and semi-private lessons, skating clinics, drills, and many events including skating parties and team trips.

Winterland membership fee is $40.00 per year. Members also need to be registered with the Ice Skating Institute and have a current ISI number. Your ISI membership will enable you to receive the ISI quarterly skating magazine, liability insurance, and eligibility to test and compete in ISI competitions. ISI applications are available at the Winterland Registration Counter or downloaded from www.Skateisi.org. The ISI membership cost is $15 yearly and runs from Sept 1st to Aug 31st.

Winterland ice sessions are listed on this applications. Ice contracts are payable and due on the first week of each two-month session. All bills must be current in order to test or compete.

Recommended skating attire: Skating outfits & tights or stretch pants. Fleece is warm, light weight, and comfortable. Wear layers. No hoods, scarves or loose or hanging clothing. Thin gloves are recommended.

Winterland has six Synchro Teams. Tryouts are late spring and early fall of each year. See Winterland Bulletin Board.

Winterland Policies:

- We accept credit cards, personal check, or cash.
- 10% off add'l family member.
- Ice cancellations credits only.
- No Refunds.
- Walk-on $14 per freestyle.
